How We Can Help

We cannot predict what is around the corner and we hope to offer peace of mind to our members. There are a variety of reasons why members approach the PSFS; for example back to school/college fees, other costs related to dependents are all considered.

Should anything unexpected or unmanageable crop up, you can approach us for assistance.

AGM 2024

The Public Service Friendly Society is holding its Annual General Meeting (AGM) in Buswells Hotel on Tuesday 14th May at 12.30pm.

All members of the Society are welcome to attend.

There will be an online option for those who cannot attend in person (Microsoft Teams). Members will need to register their interest with the office if they choose to attend virtually by emailing info@psfs.ie.

The meeting will give those who may be unfamiliar with the Society a chance to see what it's all about.

Launch of PSFS Benefits

On September 20th 2023, we launched our exclusive members-only benefits package. We were joined by members across several Departments. It was a great turnout and there has been huge interest in the additional benefits to date.

Roisin Lyons, of Lyons Financial, gave a detailed and informative presentation about each benefit and the hands on approach her staff take when dealing with our members. We would like to thank Roisin for working so closely with the Society over the last year.

We also would like to extend our thanks to our guest speaker, Mr. Niall Cody (Revenue Chairman/Trustee of the Society), Ms. Angelina Kelly for her presentation and to the Revenue Choir who sang beautifully on the day.

Staff talks/Promotion

Barbara, our Development Officer, has presented to staff in various Departments over the last year. They include The Revenue Commissioners, Dept. of Environment, Central Statistics Office and the Data Protection Commission.

If you feel your Section or Department would like to hear more about us, the Society provides presentations, both online and in person. Please get in touch and we will be happy to arrange a date & time that suits.

Members can avail of a range of benefits at discounted rates through Lyons Financial. They include:

Specified Illness Plan

Medical and Dental Insurance

Full mortgage service

Income Continuance
